

Mihir Shah

Mihir Shah is the Communications Specialist at Council on Energy, Environment and Water and is responsible for branding and communications. He has done his MBA in Communications from Mudra Institute of Communications Ahmedabad (MICA) and is a graduate in Mass Media from Mumbai University.

Prior to joining CEEW, he worked with the Commissionerate of Information (Gujarat) and Gujarat State Disaster Management Authority (GSDMA) for 3 years as a Communications Consultant and also supported UNICEF Gujarat and Gender Resource Centre (Gujarat) on short-term projects. Besides these, he has also interned or volunteered for varied organisations including Titan Industries, BIG 92.7 FM, UNDP (Barbados and the OECS), UN Multimedia Asia and 21st Century African Youth Movement.

His areas of professional expertise include brand management, campaign planning, digital communications documentation and advocacy. Mihir is an ardent photographer and also holds an interest in world cinema, reading non-fiction and trekking.

Languages Spoken: English, Hindi, Kutchi, Gujarati (basic), Marathi (basic)