

Sandhya Singh is the Administrative Assistant at the Council on Energy, Environment and Water, India. She has experience of almost seven years with reputed organizations in Delhi, including Kochhar & Company where she was working as an Executive Assistant to Senior Partner and IILM where she worked as HR executive and was also assisting the IT-Director for designing the web forms and other major IT operations.

Sandhya is a English Post Graduate and holds a Diploma of A-level from DOEACC society. Additionally, she holds a MBA degree with dual specialization in Human Resources and Information Technology.